INVITATION TO CONSIGN

RARE BOOK AUCTION MAY 2020

KETTERER  RARE BOOKS

PREFACE

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen, dear Friends,

We look back on a very special and exciting auction year that was crowned by a result of one million euro for the Fust-Schöffer-Bible from Gutenberg's print-shop. The incredibly fine copy of this bible from the early days of book printing art caught the fancy of book lovers far beyond our circle of regular clients. We are particularly delighted about the vast public attention this unusually high hammer price by German standards has raised and would also like to thank the consignor for entrusting us with such a rarity.

Apart from this gem, our spring and autumn auctions yielded excellent four- and five-figure prices and prove that we offer the perfect setting for upscale objects. A lavish catalog design in combination with our vast international network of private collectors, libraries and traders contribute to these excellent results. The following pages contain a selection of highlights from our past auction in November 2019, as well as some notable consignments for the upcoming auction on May 25, 2020.

Make an appointment for an appraisal at our premises in Hamburg or for a visit wherever you live. We arrange for free and insured transport, also from abroad. Our regular appraisal days in Berlin, Cologne, Düsseldorf, Munich, Stuttgart and Switzerland also offer a free and easy option to have your books evaluated by one of our experts.

We are looking forward to hearing from you!

Sincerely,

Christoph Calaminus
(Antiquarian and Auctioneer)
